

City Life vs Country Life

City life
Advantages	Disadvantages
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Cities have numerous job opportunities as there are many corporations and businesses, where there is a higher chance of getting hired with a higher pay, too.2. Cities can offer better educational opportunities because there are lots of Universities and colleges there. Besides, schools have more extracurricular activities and after school clubs.3. Urban life is easier because there are a lot of modern conveniences, including hot and cold running water, central heating and sewerage system.4. Medical service in the city is better than in the country as there are lots of Medical Consulting centers and big hospitals with competent and skilled doctors.5. Public transportation system is better developed than in rural areas. Cities have all kinds of transport, including metro, buses, trolleybuses and trams. Besides, roads are kept in better condition than in villages.6. A lot of entertainment opportunities are available in urban areas. People can visit museums, theatres and cinemas. They can also have a good time in restaurants and cafes.7. Numerous fitness centers make it possible for citizens to go in for sports and encourage keeping fit.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Environmental problems lead to lots of negative aspects of city life. It is known that air and water pollution cause a lot of diseases.2. Living in overpopulated city is very stressful. Thus, it is often the reason for mental health problems of people living in urban areas.3. The rates of crime in cities are higher than in the country as the chance of getting caught by the police in urban areas is lower.4. There can be a disadvantage of job searching in big cities, since there are a lot of competent and experienced job seekers there.5. The cost of living in cities is higher because people have to pay for transport and all the modern conveniences they use.6. Some people in the city are stressed and unfriendly, which creates inhospitable environment for living in urban areas.7. There is a lot of traffic in cities, so journeys often take a lot of time.

City Life vs Country Life

Country life
Advantages	Disadvantages
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Living in the country is healthier as the environment is better.2. The rates of crime are lower since there are fewer people, and all strangers are watched with great attention.3. Life in rural areas is cheaper because a lot of people grow, eat and sell their own crops. Besides, they do not spend so much time on entertainment and transport.4. Classes in the country schools are smaller which leads to a better student- teacher relationship resulting in better understanding and more knowledge.5. Life in the country is quiet and peaceful without heavy traffic and crowds.6. Food in the country is organic as people grow it themselves.7. In villages, people know each other and are friendly and helpful.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. There are fewer career opportunities, and jobs are badly-paid.2. Schools in the country are smaller and do not offer so many educational programmes and after-school activities.3. The fact that there are not many colleges in rural areas forces the students to go to the city in order to continue education.4. There are fewer entertainment opportunities.5. Medical service in the country is a lot worse than in cities.6. If you are a shopaholic, you will be upset in the country as there are not many shops there.