The people (1-5) below are all looking for something to do this weekend. There are eight descriptions of different events (A-H). Decide which event would be most suitable for the people.

Ben has a teenage son who is taking exams at the end of the year. He would like an activity that his son could attend on Saturday to work on his art project.

A. OPEN AIR ENTERTAINMENT
From old black-and-white classics to the latest award-winning films. We open for the summer season this Saturday. Come along and enjoy your favourite film in the evening, outside under the stars – the weather looks good this weekend! Children under 13 enter for free.
B. FIND ROBERT THE RABBIT
Bring the children along to our annual 'Find Robert' event at Kings Shelley Park this Saturday morning. Each year Robert finds a different place to hide away, and this year we think the kids will find it hard to locate him. Lots of running around and fun for children of all ages!
C. OPEN GARDENS
We're pleased to announce this popular summer event will be taking place this weekend. For everyone interested in gardens and gardening, now's your chance to have a look at some of the best in town as people open up their gardens to visitors any time between 9.00 and 5.00. Children are welcome.
D. TOM AND LARRY'S GARDEN PARTY
This Sunday Tom and Larry will be performing your favourite tunes and a few new ones you may not have heard of. Entrance fee for the evening entertainment includes an evening of music, a buffet with a wide range of food and hot and cold drinks along with ice-cream for the kids.
E. MANSFIELD ARTS MARKET
Come along this Sunday to check out some of the fantastic artistic talents the region has to offer. Have a look at some of the works and support our local artists by buying one to take home. We also have face-painting for the younger children and an art workshop for children who want to have a go themselves.
F. ART ATTACK
Come along to our art club for children this weekend. We offer a safe place where children from 6-16 can have time working alone or with others on a piece of art. And if your child needs help with their schoolwork there'll be someone available to offer help and advice.
G. WANTED: YOUNG MUSICIANS
For ages 14 and over, Middlechurch Musicians are holding a series of activities over the weekend for young people of any ability to learn or practice an instrument of their choice. Bring your child and their favourite instrument along, or if they haven't got to this stage let them try one of our own.
H. HASSOCKS GREEN FESTIVALL
In addition to our regular favourites, organisers this year have introduced a children's theme. Take a chair, then relax and enjoy action films and some of the funniest cartoons that will keep your kids entertained. The festival opens on Sunday at 10.00 and is free.
